

Thinking over the Prothero readings, is his project successful in your opinion (100 words)?

Thinking about the religions we've studied during the course, which values do you see in the American work ethic? Identify at least three values, identify the religions they come from, and explain how you see each value incorporated into today's work ethic. (100 words)