

In 250 words, write about the various levels of quality of life that different cancer treatments offer. List the questions a patient should consider when selecting a treatment.