

- In 250 words, answer the following questions: There is an increasing trend among the public to turn to alternative medicine, such as special diet, for the treatment of cancer. Based on what you have learned this week, do you support or challenge the use of alternative medicine for the treatment of cancer? Explain.
- Reflect on the class and identify two or three topics you have learned about that will make you a better patient or advocate for another patient. How has this class helped you better understand how living organisms and the human body work? (150 words)