

PLEASE USE YOUR OWN WORDS, DON'T PLAGIARIZE

- Contrast the views of environmental scientist with those of economists and policy makers regarding whether population growth is a problem. Name several reasons why population growth is commonly view as a problem.
- why do poorer societies have higher population growth rates than wealthier societies? how does poverty affect the environment? how does affluence affect the environment?
- Compare and contrast the methods used in traditional and industrial agriculture. How does sustainable agriculture differ from industrial agriculture?
- Name three human activities that can promote soil erosion. Describe several farming techniques that can help reduce the risk of erosion.