

In a formal essay, answer the following questions: Assess Othello's leadership skills. Do you think he would be an effective CEO in your organization? Why or why not? Do you think a CEO needs to treat his rivals like Othello does in order to be successful? Quote from Othello as necessary to make your points.

Your essay should be two to three pages long. Use events from Othello as evidence for your essay's arguments. Your essay should use APA format.

A successful essay will contain the following elements:

- Explicit thesis with focused discussion of main points (30 points)
- Clear, effective, grammatically correct prose (20 points)
- Good structure (e.g., introduction, body, and conclusion) and clear organization with adequate development of each major point (20 points)
- Accuracy of information (20 points)
- Quotations, as necessary, to illustrate points (5 points)
- Correct use of the APA format (5 points)
