

In a formal essay, answer the following questions: Choose three strategies described in “The Art of War,” and explain how they are useful in the twenty-first century workplace. How can today’s leaders transform these military strategies into business models that will help them achieve goals? Quote from “The Art of War” as necessary to make your points. 2-3 PAGES

Your essay should be two to three pages long. Use quotations from “The Art of War” as evidence for your essay’s arguments. Your essay should use APA format.

A successful essay will contain the following elements:

- Explicit thesis with focused discussion of main points (30 points)
- Clear, effective, grammatically correct prose (20 points)
- Good structure (e.g., introduction, body, and conclusion) and clear organization with adequate development of each major point (20 points)
- Accuracy of information (20 points)
- Quotations, as necessary, to illustrate points (5 points)
- Correct use of the APA format (5 points)