

A PHP Developer is responsible for creating and implementing an array of Web-based products using PHP, MySQL, Ajax, and JavaScript. You develop back-end components, connect the application with other web services, and assist front-end developers by ensuring their work integrates with the application. Also, you might be asked to develop and integrate plug-ins for popular frameworks.

Required Candidate profile

Must have experience in HTML, Bootstrap and MVC frameworks like CodeIgniter and Laravel.

- Experience in Developing and integrating plug-ins.
- Experience in assisting Front-End Developers.
- Experience in developing Back end components.
- Experience in implementing and creating array of web-based products.
- Experience in WordPress, Magento, Drupal, Yii, etc will be a plus point.
- Good knowledge of SQL and related databases, with a preference for those with MySQL experience.
- Excellent knowledge of the basic PHP 7 or web server exploits along with their solutions.
- Experience building or maintaining a CMS.
- Knowledge of MVC frameworks.
- A detailed understanding of database design and administration.
- Proficiency when it comes to code versioning tools.
- The ability to integrate a variety of data sources and databases into a single system.
- Proficiency when it comes to code versioning tools.
- Experience 4-10years.

If you are selected than as an employee you be working on international project and international clients mainly so timings can be different few times in year. And candidates must have passport or willing to get in case need to travel overseas for work for few days.